

CONTENTS

PART 1: INTRODUCTION

What this book isn't
What's different about fiction editing?
The different levels of editing

PART 2: CHECKING NARRATIVE

The importance of story structure
Holding narrative viewpoint
Choosing tense
Avoiding overwriting
Character description
Using and abusing filter words
Tacit and explicit chronology of action
Action versus the intention to act
Action beats
Playing with sentence length
Commas, conjunctions and rhythm
Anaphora: Purposeful repetition
Adverbs and adverbial phrases
Dealing with 'seemed' and other tentative language
Using 'suddenly' with caution
Free indirect speech
Writing suspenseful chapter endings
Showing versus telling

PART 3: CHECKING DIALOGUE AND THOUGHTS

How to write great dialogue
Other dialogue problems
Punctuating dialogue
Dialogue tags
Addressing others in dialogue
Conveying accents
Depicting thoughts

PART 4: PESKY PUNCTUATION

Apostrophes

Semi-colons

Dashes

Round brackets

Revisiting quotation marks

PART 5: IS IT A RULE?

Rules versus style preferences

The most common myths debunked

PART 6: TRACKING STORY

Style sheets

World-building wikis

PART 7: INITIAL PREP AND FINAL PROOFS

Preparing your book file for editing

Checking final page proofs

GLOSSARY OF TERMS

CITED SOURCES

WRITING-CRAFT BOOKS